

ERIC SANDY/SUN NEWS

Beachcliff Market Square offers a unique lineup of storefronts. It's one-stop shopping at its finest.

Beachcliff Market Square can ease holiday shopping stress

By Eric Sandy
esandy@sunnews.com

It's about that time. The mad dash of holiday shoppers is getting a little more frenzied as the big day approaches.

Those who are still working on their gift lists can turn to Beachcliff Market Square in Rocky River for some assistance.

After a hot beverage from Erie Island Coffee, shoppers can head toward a row of relatively new businesses, including Soothe Massage and Wellness, Venetian Spa, Pure Enchantment, Bella Bridesmaid, Tomorrow's Hair Salon and Girls Got Swing.

Each store offers a unique variety of products, making them the perfect place for gifts or the ever-popular gift card.

And gentlemen, take note. This shopping center is perfect for picking up gifts for the ladies in your life.

Mellow Yellow offers a variety of accessories. Accent an outfit with beads, bracelets and more. Right now, the store is advertising a sale on many goods.

Continuing around the shopping center, drop in at Planet Fitness and pick up a membership for a family member or friend. The gym has a casual attitude that could be welcome as

New Year's resolutions are made in the next several weeks. Sign up by Dec. 28 and take advantage of a special deal. After a $29 start-up fee, the cost is $10 per month.

Heading around the corner, Francesca's offers another opportunity to purchase a collection of accessories and wardrobe additions-maybe something fancy and casual for the colder months ahead.

While completing the trip around the parking lot, shoppers can find a variety of decorative items for the home at The Green Roots Collection and Urban Home and Garden.